FEE-HELP

What is FEE-HELP?

FEE-HELP is a loan given to eligible fee-paying students to help pay part or all of their tuition fees. You can borrow up to the amount of the tuition fee for your Higher Education programs at Raffles College. However, over your lifetime you can borrow only up to the FEE-HELP limit. A loan fee of 20% applies to FEE-HELP loans for undergraduate courses of study. The FEE-HELP limit does not include the loan fee. Students repay their loan through the tax system once their income is above the minimum threshold for compulsory repayment. Students may choose to pay their tuition fees upfront, defer the payment of their tuition fees through FEE-HELP, or defer a portion through FEE-HELP and pay a portion upfront or after the FEE-HELP portion is applied.

Who is eligible for FEE-HELP?

You must be an Australian citizen or the holder of a permanent humanitarian visa who will be a resident in Australia for the duration of your studies.

Census Dates

Raffles College is required to set a census date for each course it offers. This is the day on which all your enrolment requirements must be finalised. If you do not make these arrangements in time, your enrolment may be cancelled. The census dates fall two weeks after each term start date. You need to finalise your arrangements for payment of your fees by the census date. You can do this by submitting a completed FEE-HELP assistance form or by making an upfront payment of your fees.

FEE-HELP Information

For more information about FEE-HELP:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

- Once accepted, you will be enrolled into the first academic year of study. Subject to the course being undertaken, progression to the next academic year is determined through assessment of your academic achievements, examination results, aptitude and attitude, all of which must be deemed satisfactory.
- By enrolling in any of our courses, you agree to pay all fees not covered by FEE-HELP on or before the due dates.
- Fees are applicable for the duration of studies at Raffles provided that you remain on the standard program. Repeated subjects and subjects taken additional to the course require payment of an additional fee at the prevailing rate per credit point/subject.
- You may apply for credit(s) from previous studies (Recognition of Prior Learning - RPL). The Application Form for Recognition of Prior Learning details the process for requesting RPL and how it is assessed. Applications for RPL must be submitted no later than 2 weeks before the commencement of your course. Applications are usually processed within 2 weeks of submission, and there is no fee for this service.
- Subject to the approval and discretion of Raffles, if you fail any subject twice, you may be required to show cause to continue your course.
- Disruptive behaviour in class and failure to observe rules of Raffles may result in your dismissal. In such a case you will not receive a refund of fees and all outstanding fees not covered by FEE-HELP will become due at the date of dismissal.
- Before a repeat subject can be commenced, the tuition fees not covered by FEE-HELP in relation to the repeat subject must be paid in full regardless of any fees that may have been paid in advance for other subjects.
- Late payment of outstanding fees other than FEE-HELP will attract a late fee and you may be suspended from classes until you have paid the fees due.
- If you complete your course but do not pay all the fees for that course, you will not be issued with your transcripts or qualifications until all outstanding monies have been paid in full.
- Under exceptional circumstances, and at the discretion of Raffles, you may be permitted to commence a course up to 1 week after the published course start date. If you arrive later than 1 week after the course start date, you will need to defer to the next term.
- Raffles reserves the right to change or replace lecturers or tutors at any time, cancel a course with fewer than 8 enrolments prior to commencement of each term and make changes to the syllabus or timetable at any time.
- If you are under the age of 18 at the time of enrolment your parent or guardian who signs this Application Form accepts the liability for payment of all fees not covered by FEE-HELP.
- Fees stated in the application form apply only to that year's enrolment period.
- It is the student's responsibility to inform Student Services immediately of any changes to address, email or telephone details. Raffles will not be held responsible for communications not received due to a student's failure to update his or her contact details with Student Services.

REFUND POLICY

Higher Education Courses

- If you have applied for FEE-HELP and withdraw from your course before the course starting date you will not incur any financial penalty.
- If you have applied for FEE-HELP and withdraw from your course after the course starting date and before the census date, you will be liable for a penalty fee of $1000.
- If you have applied for FEE-HELP and withdraw from your course after the census date you will be liable for the FEE-HELP debt for the subjects that you are currently enrolled in.
- If you cancel your enrolment before the course starting date, prepaid tuition fees are refundable.
- Your application for a refund must be made in writing to the Registrar and will be paid within 28 days of our receipt of your claim.
- If you cancel your enrolment after the course starting date and before the census date, prepaid tuition fees are refundable, less a penalty fee of $1000.
- Transfer of prepaid tuition fees to another college is at the discretion of Raffles College.
- Deferment of a term may be granted at the discretion of Raffles College.
- If the course does not start on the agreed starting date, or if the course ceases to be provided before it is completed, or if the course is not provided in full (known as 'provider default'), such situations are covered by the provisions of the Higher Education Support Act 2003 (HESA). This means that an alternative course provider will be provided through the ACPET Australian Student Tuition Assurance Scheme. The refund will be the total amount of course money paid by in advance for any unit of study that you commence but cannot complete because Raffles ceases to provide the course of study of which the unit forms part (or a corresponding re-crediting of any FEE-HELP balance relating to that unit). Refunds will be paid within 14 days of the provider default.
- This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

Vocational Courses

- If you cancel your enrolment before the course starting date, prepaid tuition fees are refundable, less a penalty fee of $1000.
- Your application for a refund must be made in writing to the Registrar, and will be paid within 28 days of receipt of your claim.
- Prepaid tuition fees are non-refundable if you cancel your enrolment after your course has started.
- Transfer of prepaid tuition fees to another college is at the discretion of Raffles College.
- Deferment of a term may be granted at the discretion of Raffles College.
- If the course does not start on the agreed starting date, or if the course ceases to be provided before it is completed, or if the course is not provided in full (known as 'provider default'), an alternate course provider or a refund will be provided. The refund will be the total amount of course money paid by you in advance for any unit of study that you commence but cannot complete because Raffles ceases to provide the course of study of which the unit forms part. Refunds will be paid within 14 days of the provider default.
- If, after you have commenced your course, you are unable to continue your studies due to unforeseen and exceptional circumstances, your application for a refund must be made in writing to the Registrar with your documents to support your claim. Refunds are made at the discretion of the college. If approved, the refund will be the total amount of the course money paid by you in advance for services not yet received and for any unit of study that you commence but cannot complete. Refunds will be paid within 14 days.
- This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Your right to privacy is important to Raffles College of Design and Commerce and all personal information collected about you is treated as confidential. This statement applies to the collection of any personal information we collect on you. You may request access at any time to information we hold about you and ask us to correct it if you believe it is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date. We will only disclose your personal information if you request us to do so in writing, or where the law permits or requires us to do so. In these circumstances, the minimum amount of information required or requested will be disclosed. Personal information may also be shared with the Australian Government, designated authorities, the Tuition Assurance Scheme and the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager. This information may include personal and contact details, course enrolment details and changes, and circumstances of any suspected breach by the student of a student visa condition.
